Athlete Code of Conduct

- All members will report to their Coach or Team manager when arriving for competitions.
- Be organised and on time for training/competitions.
- Make sure you have suitable clothing, food, drinks as required and any medication you may need.
- Take part in competition for the club as and when requested, ideally two/three times per year.
- Always treat others with respect and fairness.
- Do not disrupt training sessions with bad behaviour, this may lead to membership being cancelled.
- Destructive or distracting behaviour will not be tolerated by the coach's.
- Inform the club of any other coaching you may be taking or club you may be training with.
- Inform your coach if feeling unwell or suffering from an injury.
- Use safe transport or travel arrangements. Juniors should never accept lifts in cars on a one to one basis without prior permission from parents or guardian/carer

If anything makes you concerned or uncomfortable or if you think anyone has suffered from misconduct you should inform the welfare officer or coach present. All such reports will be treated in strict confidence by the club

Photographs & Video Filming

Video is a legitimate and valuable coaching aid and photographs help promote the club, its athletes and their achievements in the local press and social media websites. During club sessions coaches may use video or photographic analysis as a training tool, none of this material will be used outside of the club environment without the athletes/parent's consent.

During competitions not under the clubs control video/photographs may be taken by the press, parents, coaches from other clubs over which we have no control.

The club adopts England Athletics Photographic Policy guidelines and can be viewed on their website <http://www.englandathletics.org/athletics-clubs/i-help-to-run-a-club/welfare-everyones-resposibility/welfare>

If you have any concerns contact any of the Club Welfare Officer's - Jo Potter 07768 155253, Jayne Lynas 07772 738239, Ryan Blake 07904 956983.

Or contact the Club's Mental Health Champion, Paige Roadley on 07796 557080.

I have read and understand the above Athlete Code of Conduct
